SCHEDULE OF EVENTS-

THURSDAY JULY 22ND 5:45 – 6:30 PM

Meeting with Parents and Contestants

A brief meeting will be held in front of the stage area at the Lions Park in Lagrange, Ohio. At this time the contestants will randomly draw numbers for the order they will be appearing during the pageant. We will briefly go over the events that will take place during the pageant on Saturday July 24th, 2010. After the meeting is concluded we will head over to the high school to participate in the parade.

THURSDAY July 22ND 7:00pm – 8:00 PM

Parade/ Little Miss Float

All contestants will have the opportunity to ride the Little Miss Float. Parents are welcome to walk along the sides of the float. Attire is entirely up to the contestant and parent(s). Each contestant will be receiving a Miss Liberty Tiara, a "Little Miss Contestant" sash, and an American Flag to waive.

SATURDAY July 24th 11:00am – 12:30pm

Little Miss Pageant

The first half of the pageant is "Question and Answer"- Each contestant will be called forward in the order drawn on parade day and asked the first question, the last question, and the two questions selected on the entry form. Following the "Questions", there will be a brief break in order to let the contestants get ready for the "Talent" portion. There will be an area behind the stage provided to change into another outfit if needed. The contestants will be called forward again in the same order as before and will perform their talent.

Following the "Talent" portion there will be a brief break to tally all the scores and than presentation of Runner-Up and the crowning of "Little Miss 2010" will take place.
